

SHOWS FOR DAYS – CHARACTER BREAKDOWN

- Irene (50-60) A true diva of the highest order and a master manipulator, emotional and otherwise.
- Car (25-35) Playwright of this memory play. The actor portraying Car must have capacity to play 14 without using make-up or gimmicks and must be able to engage the audience directly as himself at both ages.
- Sid (40-50) The overall-wearing female stage manager – all backstage business
- Maria (20-30) The insecure ingénue – just having fun
- Clive (30-45) The leading man of color who is perhaps a bigger Diva than Irene
- Damien (25-35) The sexy waiter recruited to be the new leading who has designs of his own
